FORSCHUNGSINSTITUT HOHENSTEIN
Schloss Hohenstein · D-74357 Bönnigheim

Institut der Internationalen Gemeinschaft für Forschung und Prüfung auf dem Gebiet der Textilökologie

The company

TS Designs

2053 Willow Springs Lane

NC 27215 Burlington, United States is granted authorization according to Oeko-Tex Standard 100 to use the Oeko-Tex mark, based on our test report 08.0.59657

for the following articles:

T-Shirts, reactive dyed and printed (Rehance® screen printing), made of 100 % organic cotton.

The results of the inspection made according to Oeko-Tex Standard 100, product class II have shown that the above mentioned goods meet the human-ecological requirements of the standard presently established for products with direct contact to skin.

The certified articles fulfil the requirements of the existing European legislation regarding the use of azo-dyes.

The holder of the certificate, who has issued a conformity declaration according to EN ISO 17050-1, is under an obligation to use the Oeko-Tex mark only in conjunction with products that conform with the sample initially tested.

Boennigheim, 12.09.2008

This authorisation is valid until 30.09.2009
